

MeMO Congress, Utrecht, Netherlands, 31 January – 2 February 2013

Shaping and Commemorating Identities. Creating and Expressing Identity through Memoria in the Medieval and Early Modern Period.

Time	Event	Participants
Thursday 31 January 2013
10:00-10:30	Coffee
10:30-10:40	Word of welcome	Prof. dr. Wiljan van den Akker, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities of Utrecht University
Theme 1: Commissioning with intentions		Chair: Chair: Prof. dr. em. Dick de Boer (University of Groningen)
10:40-11:20	“Import, Hybrid or Innovation ? The tomb of Pope Jean XXII in Avignon and its European setting”	Prof. dr. em. Julian Gardner (Warwick University)
11:20-11:40	“A plethora of options. Utrecht canons between individual choices and collective responsibilities”	Dr. Bram van den Hoven van Genderen (Utrecht University)
11:40-11:50	Coffee break
11:50-12:10	“Written evidence of late medieval confraternal strategies on the ‘salvation market’, specifically in the Southern Low Countries”	Prof. dr. Paul Trio (Katholieke Universiteit Leuven)
12:10-12:30	“The memorial painting of Pieter van der Meulen: The Virgin of the Butterfly in context”	Dr. Douglas Brine (Trinity University)
12:30-12:45	Discussion	All
12:45-13:30	Lunch break

Theme 2: The production of memoria (including changes to objects and texts)		Chair: Prof. dr. Jos Biemans (University of Amsterdam)
13:30-14:15	“Formen der Memorialüberlieferung aus dem frühen Mittelalter”	Prof. dr. Uwe Ludwig (Universität Duisburg-Essen)
14:15-14:35	“New insights into the memorial paintings by Jacob Cornelisz van Oostsanen (ca. 1470-1533)”	Dr. Daantje Meuwissen (Radboud University Nijmegen)
14:35-14:55	“Precious tombs for princely children: a tale of four monuments”	Dr. Sophie Oosterwijk (Utrecht University)
14:55-15:15	Discussion	All

Theme 3: Creating and unveiling MeMO		Chair: Dr. Truus van Bueren (Utrecht University)
15:15-15:35	Coffee break Welcome to those who arrive for the festive presentation of the MeMO application
15:35-16:40	Festive presentation of the MeMO application	Dr. Truus van Bueren (UU), Rolf de Weijert MA (UU), Jan van Mansum (Data Archiving and Networked Services), Trudi Brink MA (UU), and Prof. dr. em. J.M. van Winter (UU)
16:40-17:00	“All good things come in threes. Using Medieval Memoria Online”	Dr. Hildo van Engen (Regional Archive, Land van Heusden en Altena)
17:00-18:00	Drinks

Friday 1 February 2013
Please note: The schedule for today has been slightly changed. Regrettably Professor Oexle will be unable to present his paper due to illness.
9:50-10:20	Coffee
Theme 4: Commemoration in word and deed (rituals)		Chair: Dr. Birgitte Bøggild Johannsen (National Museum of Denmark, Copenhagen)
10:20-11:00	“Gedenken durch Handeln. Ritualisierung der Memoria in der spätmittelalterlichen Stadt”	Prof. dr. Thomas Schilp (Universität Duisburg-Essen)
11:00-11:20	“The funerals and foundations of members of the medieval Courtrai clergy: conforming to custom or personal preference?”	Marjan de Smet MA (Katholieke Universiteit Leuven)
11:20-11:40	““Oh wie selig war diese Seele.” Zur tradierten und inszenierten Erinnerungskultur in den Schwestergemeinschaften der Devotio moderna.”	Dr. Anne Bollmann (University of Groningen)
11:40-12:00	“Memoria zwischen Wunsch und Wirklichkeit. Überlegungen zum spätmittelalterlichen Memorialwesen im Frauenstift Thorn.”	Hartwig Kersken MA (Universität Duisburg-Essen)
12:00-12:15	Discussion	All
12:15-13:20	Lunch break

Theme 5: Changing perspectives		Chair: Dr. Caroline Horch (Martin-Luther-Universität Halle-Wittenberg)
13:20-13:40	“In search of urban funerary hierarchies”	Prof. dr. Koen Goudriaan (VU Amsterdam)
13:40-14:00	“Memorials Added, Altered and Accreted: Examples from 15th and 16th Century Nuremberg”	Prof. dr. Corine Schleif (Arizona State University)
14:00-14:20	“Reforming chantries into collegiate chapters: loss of commemorative functions or not?”	Dr. Jan Kuijs (Radboud University Nijmegen)
14:20-14:35	Discussion	All
14:35-14:50	Coffee break

Theme 6: Exhibition (with introduction)
14:50-15:20	Introduction to Surviving the Iconoclasm , an exhibition of medieval sculpture from Utrecht 1430-1530 at Museum Catharijneconvent	Dr. Truus van Bueren (Utrecht University)
15:20-17:00	Walk to Museum Catharijneconvent and visit to the exhibition	All
17:00-18:00	Drinks compliments of Museum Catharijneconvent
18:30-21:00	Dinner	Chairpersons and Speakers

Saturday 2 February 2013
9:30- 9:45	Coffee
Theme 7: Researchers and the reception of memoria		Chair: Dr. Anna Adamska (Utrecht University)
9:45-10:20	"Memoria - motivation to write history"!?	Prof. dr. Meta Niederkorn (Universität Wien)
10:20-10:55	"Memoria: a quantitative approach"	Prof. dr. Sam Cohn (University of Glasgow)
10:55 -11:25	"Quantitative easing: handling missing data in medieval economic and social history."	Dr. Auke Rijpma (Utrecht University)
11:25-11:35	Discussion	All
11:35-11:50	Coffee break

Theme 8: Discussion: the future of memoria research – new grounds and perspectives		Chair: Prof. dr. Arnoud-Jan Bijsterveld (Tilburg University)
11:50-12:10	"Bischofsmemoria im Spiegel der frühmittelalterlichen Gedenküberlieferung"	Dr. Jens Lieven (Ruhr-Universität Bochum)
12:10-12:30	"From the Burgundian duchy to the Mamluk sultanate: memoria across cultures"	Kim Ragetli MA (Leiden University)
12:30-13:00	Discussion	All
13:00-13:10	Word of thanks and farewell	Dr. Truus van Bueren (Utrecht University)